

Mission statement

Development of dynamic proactive young leaders capable to responsibly initiate and implement positive changes in various fields of consciously chosen activity using gained knowledge and competencies through intercultural understanding and respect.